Plus Fitness Extends Reach in New Zealand!

Plus Fitness has seen its third New Zealand franchise open today located in Lincoln in the city of Christchurch. With Plus Fitness franchises already open in both Addington and Rolleston in Christchurch, this third franchise sees the Australian based brand increase its stronghold in the region.

Franchisee, Daniel Tipples started his journey with the brand as a team member at Plus Fitness in Rolleston, before going on to now opening his own Franchise. When asked about his decision to open his own Plus Fitness Daniel had this to say;

"Having worked in a Plus Fitness I knew the strength of the systems and the support that is provided to franchisees. I had wanted to own my own gym for some time so when the opportunity presented itself I jumped on it". He went on to say; "It's been a big effort but we're finally here! Thanks to all the people that have supported and helped along the way. The journey begins here, glad to be a part of the Plus Family!"

The opening of Plus Fitness Lincoln, New Zealand sees the 7th Plus Fitness to open outside of Australia and the 185th globally. With a further 80 Franchises sold across Australia, New Zealand and Asia there appears to be no sign of slowing down for this award winning Australian franchise group.
